

Genealogy of Evert van Vledder part 3 Australia 1887 - present

Introduction

The van Vledder history dates back to the early 16 hundreds. The graph below shows the big picture with the different branches of the family tree that are still alive and how they are related. This document covers the Australia part of the tree starting in 1887 when Philippus Jacobus (Philip James) started a new life in Geelong, Victoria. Philip was the 4th of 8 children of Pieter van Vledder and Paulina Rop. 5 of the 8 children died at very young age. Hist oldest brother Pieter stayed in the Netherlands and has, just like Philip, many descendants. You can download part 1, 2 and 4 of the Van Vledder genealogy on www.vanvledder.nl/ourancestors

VII.2.1.2.3.6.4 Philippus Jacobus van Vledder Philippus was born on September 24th 1860 in Putten and died on August 23rd 1945 in Saint Kilda, Victoria at the age of 84. He married three times. His first wife was Florence Annie Huddleston, who was born January 15th 1867. She died at the age of only 33 on February 2nd 1900. Philip's second marriage was with Annie Mary Bubb, born on July 25th 1870. Annie also died at relatively young age (43) on May 7th 1914. In 1918 Philip married for the third and last time.
